IRELAND

10th - 13th April 2023, Tramore

Key Note Speakers

Bishop Alphonsus
Cullinan

Deacon Zoltan
Kunszabo

David Wells

Great talks ∴ Seminars ∴ Workshops

Join us Tramore for a festival with a difference, as we invite families from across Ireland to celebrate Easter together

and to dive deeper into our relationship with Jesus.

Age appropriate content for children and young people.

Evening concerts and a fun social programme

Wonderful celebrations of Holy Mass

Combined with an opportunity to holiday in the sunny southwest.

The whole family are welcome from Grandparents to Babes in arms. Singles are also welcome.

Participants can also attend on a day visitor basis (depending on venue capacity) The conference fee covers the conference programme and venue. Participants will be responsible to arrange their own accommodation in the Tramore area.

To express your interest in attending please visit our website at

<https://www.arisefamilyconference.ie>

The conference is being organised by the Tine Catholic Leaders Network, in conjunction with the Diocese of Waterford. Safeguarding and Child protection guidelines will be followed throughout this holiday conference. Conference will be run in line with Government Covid guidelines if they still apply at the time of event.

Booking form for Arise Catholic Family Festival 2023, 10th-13th April 2023

Please note that priority will be given for bookings for families over groups of individuals, as places are limited. Price covers access to all talks, liturgy, seminars, and activities for the various age groups, evening social activities and light lunch on three of the conference days. Accommodation and all other meals are the responsibility of participants. Full details will be sent by email closer to the event.
